ABE AND THE AMISH

3 days/2 nights

Abraham Lincoln and the charming customs and crafts of the Amish are the stars of this Discover Illinois Tour. Illinois has saved and cherished Lincoln's memorabilia and the buildings where history was made for an entire nation.

Tour leaves from Chicago and includes appointments and all arrangements for your group to view the fascinating stops on this specially arranged itinerary. In many places you will be met by guides who will provide the exciting commentary which makes a visit memorable. Some of the locales will be opened especially for your group.

SPRINGFIELD—A Lincoln expert will give you a narrated tour of this historic area including:

ABRAHAM LINCOLN'S HOME

ABRAHAM LINCOLN'S TOMB

LINCOLN'S NEW SALEM STATE PARK—A reconstructed village of 23 buildings in the area where Lincoln lived as a young man.

OTHER HISTORIC LOCATION—Another locale, such as the Governor's Mansion, will be arranged for your group based on availability on the day of your visit.

DINNER

GREAT AMERICAN PEOPLE SHOW—Award-winning outdoor performance at New Salem available mid-June thru mid-August. Substitute evening activity will be provided at other times of the year.

AMISH SETTLEMENT—Arthur and Arcola Area. Buggies are just as prevalent as cars in Illinois' Amish country. You will visit the quaint area, including the buggy shop, a cheese factory, and the cemetery. Your guide will be an expert on this unspoiled region where people are still living with the style and customs of the 19th Century.

LUNCH—You'll dine on the country porch of an Amish home where the ham and chicken are genuinely home style.

ROCKOME GARDENS—An antique theme park where all of the garden adornments, buildings and fences are made of cement inlaid with rocks, and you'll discover plants you've never known among the hundreds of varieties.

(Entire area, except for Rockome Gardens, is closed on Sundays.)

DINNER

BLOOMINGTON—(Group will visit two or three of the following places based on availability on day of tour.)

CLOVER LAWN, the David Davis Mansion—One of the finest Victorian homes in the Midwest. Davis is the man credited with making Lincoln president.

CATHERINE BEICH CANDY FACTORY—You'll visit the home of one of the most famous candy companies in America for a tour and sampling.

FUNK GEM AND MINERAL MUSEUM—Over 3,000 of nature's most exquisite creations.

INCLUDED IN THE TOUR:

Tour Narration by knowledgeable guides in areas visited.

Tour escort from Chicago. (Special arrangements can be made for escort to board motorcoach at other locales.)

Two nights in Hotel in Springfield.

Illinois Lottery Ticket for each tour attendee.

One country cooked lunch.

Two Dinners.

All admissions for included tour portions and arrangement service for special appointments.

SOUTHERN SALUTE

Tour originates in Springfield

TWO DAY ADDITION TO "ABE AND THE AMISH" TRIP.

A Tour with Special Appeal to Nature, Art & Architecture Lovers & Church Groups.

Explore the Illinois so few people know . . . beautiful, naturally wooded park areas with mountains . . . unique rock formations . . . buried Indian civilizations now being unearthed after thousands of years . . . a Mississippi River panorama . . . picturesque towns from bygone eras . . . and the Great River Road, unsurpassed for beautiful views of the Mississippi and its fascinating river boats.

LUCKY ILLINOIS STATE LOTTERY TICKET.

THE GREAT RIVER ROAD, ALTON AND ELSAHL—Drive along one of the most beautiful sections of the famed Great River Road to view towns of a bygone era. You'll have a personalized narrated tour of this peaceful area with craggy cliffs and story-book hills filled with 19th century homes. See where steam boats raced one another . . . where newly immigrated Southerners were known as Mint Juleps . . . you'll have time to shop for antiques in Alton where over 30 shops offer a collector's heaven.

LUNCH—In a restaurant noted for its catfish. Large fish tanks with 4,000 gallons of Mississippi water display huge snapping turtles and eels as well as catfish.

NATIONAL SHRINE OF OUR LADY OF THE SNOWS—A must for everyone who loves beautiful gardens, art and sculpture, and spectacular architecture. Each year over a million people of many faiths visit the largest outdoor shrine in the U.S. set among the rolling hills of southern Illinois. A guide from the shrine will give a special tour.

CAHOKIA INDIAN MOUNDS—Look up at the largest flat-topped earthen mound built north of Mexico and try to imagine how many baskets of dirt were carried by weary Indians to build this awesome burial mound. Twenty-five thousand Indians once lived here. See a slide presentation . . . visit the Cahokia Museum . . . and envision thousands upon thousands of campfires across the prairie.

CARBONDALE OR MARION—Spend the night.

GIANT CITY STATE PARK—Enjoy dinner at this Shawnee National Forest state park filled with massive sandstone structures . . . famous for its food and the view of Bald Knob Mountain . . . an 111 foot cross on top of Bald Knob is the tallest Christian monument in North America and is lighted at night. (The park is open March to November.)

GARDEN OF THE GODS AND SHAWNEE NATIONAL FOREST—You'll feel as if you are in Colorado as you view this 200-million-year-old spectacular rock setting. It's in the midst of Illinois' beautiful Shawnee National Forest where trees, mountains, and lakes combine to form one of the most beautiful areas in the United States.

CAVE IN ROCK STATE PARK—A former hideout for infamous river pirates and outlaws. (Included if there is time in the group's tour itinerary.)

NOTE: Tour groups adding the Southern Salute to the Abe and the Amish tour will not be able to make stops in Bloomington. A stop will be made in the Champaign/Urbana area instead, based on availability.

Special archeological tours may also be arranged at Cahokia as well as Kampsville.

TOUR INCLUDES:

- All admissions and special guides.
- Tour escort.
- One night's hotel.
- One dinner.
- One lunch.

All taxes and tips on included tour features.

All arrangements for and coordination of the trip.

Transportation is priced from Springfield to Springfield because this trip is designed to be combined with the Chicago-based "Abe and Amish" tour. It also may be used as a separate tour or combined with other itineraries, if desired. If tour is purchased by itself, transportation costs for the escort-guide may need to be added. Tour escort can meet the group in locations other than Chicago.

Tour may be revised so that the group may visit the breathtaking Way of Lights at the National Shrine of Our Lady of the Snows in Belleville at night . . . over 100,000 lights, decorated trees and shrubs, electro-art sculptures, and more. (Day after Thanksgiving through first Sunday after January 1.)

MISSISSIPPI MEMORIES

3 days/2 nights Tour originates in Chicago

A Tour with Special Appeal to Antique and Nature Lovers

The romance of a paddle wheel boat ride down the Mississippi . . . a shoot-out between the good guys and the bad guys . . . memorable timepieces from around the world . . . Galena's hilly charm, U.S. Grant's home, and Ronald Reagan's home . . . all will intrigue and delight you on this tour.

LUCKY ILLINOIS STATE LOTTERY TICKET

THE TIME MUSEUM in ROCKFORD—An atomic clock and the most complicated astronomical clock ever constructed are only two of the treasures in this world famous collection of 3000 time keeping devices. Enjoy a guided tour.

SEVEN ACRES ANTIQUE VILLAGE and MUSEUM—Buffet lunch included during the stop here.

EAST DUBUQUE—Timmerman Motor Inn. Spend the night.

LEISURELY PADDLEWHEEL CRUISE—On the mighty Mississippi - it's the perfect way to spend an evening. PRIME RIB DINNER aboard the boat. (May through October)

GALENA—Where Victorian gingerbread mansions cling to San Francisco style hills in a town that has changed little since it was inhabited by wealthy ship captains, mine owners and merchants. Relive the history and romance of the 19th century river town.

MISSISSIPPI PALISADES STATE PARK—Magnificent bluffs overlooking the Mississippi River.

MOUNT CARROLL—Selected as the American Town of the Year.

EVENING CHOICES—Take your pick of:

DINNER at the Campbell Center, which has a lovely patio setting, or at Quinn's Restaurant.

AND

A production at one of the Midwest's leading semi-professional summer stock theatres, the TIMBERLAKE PLAY HOUSE. (Available May 1 thru the first week of Sept.)

OR

MISSISSIPPI RIVERFRONT PICNIC AND NATURE TALK—Picnic near the Mississippi River at the Thompson Recreation Area with a "tour talk" by a naturalist who knows the wild life, prairie grasses, and Indian history. Site is near an Indian mound where the river stretches 3 miles across. Autumn color is beautiful with migrating ducks.

The evening will be spent in Mt. Carroll or Rock Falls based on the availability of accommodations.

TAMPICO—Tour Ronald Reagan's birthplace with a guide who has studied the early life of the President and collected actual Reagan furnishings and memorabilia. (Subject to guide's availability).

"TIME WAS" MUSEUM—One of the finest antique toy collections in the United States along with antique cars, circus wagons, and fire engines and an original two horse bits gambling machine.

STARVED ROCK STATE PARK and STARVED ROCK LODGE—One of Illinois' most beautiful and famous tourist attractions.

STARVED ROCK LOCK AND DAM—View a multi-media presentation in the modern Illinois waterways center. If river boats are passing through, you'll see the locks in action.
